CopQuest Order No:

Law Enforcement Verification - General Form

In order to ship restricted items to individual or non-agency purchasers, we require authentication of peace officer status. This affidavit form can be used to furnish this authentication. Alternatively, you can have restricted products shipped directly to your law enforcement agency. Movie production companies may also purchase certain restricted items for shipment to the verified production company address.

To proceed, print this form with your browser's print feature. Fill out the information and include a copy of your employment ID. We request both the front and back of the ID card and it may be attached as a separate document. When complete take a picture of the form with your smartphone and e-mail it to [id@copquest.com](mailto: id@copquest.com). Alternatively you can Fax it to the number below. Once received, the information is subject to verification. Upon completion this form will be securely filed for future purchases of restricted items.

No restricted product will be shipped until this information is received. All submitted information is considered confidential.
